How long does it take to learn how to dance? What dances should I/we learn? I don't know. Let's find out together. Everyone learns differently, everyone has different goals, and everyone is going to like different dances more than others. What always remains the same is that everyone has decided that they want to learn how to dance and they want to have a good time. If you are brand new to dancing this is a great program to learn the basics. We can sample a few dances or focus on just one, It is entirely up to you. If you have taken dance lessons in the past, then by all means take advantage of these discounted lessons to try out my instruction
